

To place an order for a China TrueLocal number, the local regulation requires proof that the company exists in the location provided. The local regulator is requiring a photograph of the building exterior and/or the reception desk showing the company's logo.

Please make sure that the photos meet one of the following details

Photos of the office and the legal representative:

1. The exterior of the company building
2. The company address number
3. The company nameplate or sign
4. The interior of the office
5. A half-photo of the person in charge or the authorized person with the office as the background