

To activate a China TrueLocal number for inbound and outbound, the In-country Authority requires a picture of the legal representative holding their Passport (must be able to see their face and passport page).

The legal representative can be found on the company registration.